

Don't miss this seminar!

Keynote Speaker:

Percy Julian, Jr. For more than thirty-seven years, his litigation, mediation, and arbitration, and dispute resolution training and consulting practice has been centered in the area of complex civil rights, employment, and education matters. Among his dispute resolution clients have been the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the U. S. Postal Services, the National Association of Securities Dealers and the National Association of Letter Carriers.

Tennessee Human Rights Commission
2005 Employment Law
Seminar

This conference offers two tracks. Track I explores recent changes in employment law and Supreme Court decisions. Track II focuses on the application of the law and implementing effective workplace policies and procedures.

In these highly interactive sessions lead by veteran employment law attorneys, human resource professionals, and civil rights activists, you will learn about new cases and laws that have made the greatest impact on employment in the past year.

For more information about the seminar, registration
dates, CEU, or CLE units,

Please call Diyonne Williams at 615.741.1639

October 4, 2005
7:45 a.m. — 4:00 p.m.
Willis Conference Center
26 Century Boulevard
Nashville, TN 37214